The program we had for the after noon was as follows.

Chas. Spencer played four numbers on his guatair

The two walker boys(namely LeRoy and Earl)their father Henry Walker of Windsor, they played on their violin and accordion. they gave us three numbers.

Marilyn and Wilmagene Scheideman gave a little play they are LeRoy and Leone Scheideman's children, they are 3 and 5 years old. and their Father played two numbers on his his accordion.

H.A. Scheideman said a few words in regards to his Mother and Father with three children coming to Denver 55 years ago and from that numbes it has grown to about 105 that are all related to now one another and about 95 of them live in and near Denver.

Rev. Conrad Sauer of the German Church of Globeville gave grace at the dinner. and also read a letter by request from Rev. John Wacker of Odessa Wash. which he sent to be read stating that he will not be able to come to the picnic this time.
