TRUST DIVINE POWER FOR MYSELF AND FOR MY LOVED ONES.

One of the most satisfying lessons that we all learn from the spiritual book of life, is this, Life is life for ever more, and in life there is no death. True, there is a change, and in this change there is a disappearance from physical sight, but no end to life.

In a universe as large as ours, why should we limit our thought to life in one place, the earth?

There is but one source of life, all is God life and God life never dies. It comes forth on this plane of existence, after its purpose is accomplished, it ascends in the scale of unfoldment to another plane, or place of abode, fulfilling the divine purpose for Self Consciousness.

Birth and Death are two opposites of the same thing, birth is death on one plane, death is birth on another, each one is an open door into fuller life.

Shall we meet our loved ones again? Why not? It was possible here why not there again?

The law of is the law of Love, divine Love brought us into existence, shares itself with us, gives to us the precious gifts of friendship and love of others, Love fulfills its self through us.

God is active throughout the universe. It always includes us and our loved ones. Can we not trust the law when we are absent one from another? Let us death as a birth unto a higher life, a life for which we must prepare our selves while here. Let us develop a perfect faith in the Power that brings us forth, carries us onward and holds us ever within itself.
